

The Common Ministry at WSU presents

The 40th Roger Williams Symposium Dr. Diana Butler Bass March 26-28, 2022

Diana Butler Bass is an American historian and advocate for progressive Christianity. Butler Bass is the author of eleven books.

Keynote Saturday, March 26, 7 p.m.
“Freeing Jesus in Our Lives and in the Public Square”

Community Congregational United Church of Christ,
525 SE Campus St. Pullman. in person and on Zoom

Workshop Sunday, March 27, 2-4 p.m.
“Religion in the News: Trends Shaping Religion and Culture”
St. James Episcopal Church, 1410 NE Stadium Way, Pullman

Thomas Foley Presentation, Monday March 28, noon
“The Shifting Landscape of American Religion and Politics”
Foley Speaker’s Room, 308 Bryan Hall <https://foley.wsu.edu/>

All events are free. Register for zoom at: Interfaith-house.com or pullmanucc.org